General Auction Procedures

1. Every participant (age 18 or older) will be assigned a bidder number. These numbers will be handed out to guests during Registration.
2. All sales are final. There will be no exchanges or refunds.
3. Please read all specifications and limitations carefully.
4. In the event of any dispute, the decision of the Purim Ball Chairs will be final.
5. Please pay attention to all conditions, restrictions and expiration dates on items and services.
6. JPDS assumes no responsibility for travel arrangements. No refunds will be made for canceled tickets or accommodations.
7. Winners must make payment in full at the Purim Ball on Sunday, March 14, 2010. JPDS accepts VISA, MasterCard, American Express, personal checks and cash as payment. Payment may be made during checkout. Checkout will open at 9:45pm.
8. All items must be taken home on Sunday, March 14, 2010 following the Purim Ball. A volunteer will hand you your items only after you exhibit a paid receipt.
9. JPDS has endeavored to catalogue and describe the auction items accurately, but all items are sold "as is." No statement contained in the catalogue or made orally at the sale or elsewhere shall be deemed a warranty, representation or assumption of liability.
10. Not all food related items have kashrut certification.
11. The listed values for items in the auctions are estimates of their fair market value.
12. JPDS reserves the right to withdraw any item from the auction.
13. By his/her purchase, the buyer waives any claim for liability against JPDS and/or the donor of the subject property or services.
14. In the event a donor does not provide a specific expiration date for a particular donation, the donation expires one year from the date of this auction.

Bidding Procedures for Silent Auction

1. The Silent Auction will begin promptly at 6:00 p.m. and end at 8:00 p.m.
2. Items are displayed by category. Each item will have a bid sheet displayed nearby. All bid sheets will contain the item number and description, its value, its minimum starting bid and the minimum incremental bid amounts.
3. In order to place a bid, simply write your bidder number and the amount of your bid legibly. You may bid the next highest incremental amount or skip to a higher amount. If the checkout team cannot read a bidder number or bid amount, the next highest bidder may be declared the winner. If a bid does not comply with the minimum or incremental amounts, it may be disregarded. The Purim Ball Chairs reserve the right to modify the minimum bid or increments during the Silent Auction.
4. The winning bid will be the highest bid on the bid sheet for that item at the close of the category. However, the Ball Chairs reserve the right to remove invalid bids, resolve disputes or withdraw any offering at their discretion.
5. Winning bidder numbers for each item will be displayed outside the Silent Auction room before checkout.

Susan Koss Scholarship Fund Auction

1. The Susan Koss Scholarship Fund will be offered as an item in the live auction.
2. In order to make a donation to the Fund, please complete the form found on your table in full and turn them in to a volunteer who will be spotting for the auctioneer.
3. A participant who contributes to the Susan Koss Scholarship Fund must go to checkout to pay for his/her donation.

4. All donations to the Susan Koss Scholarship Fund are fully tax deductible.

Absentee Bidding Procedures

1. If someone is unable to attend the auction, s/he may submit an absentee bid. An "absentee ticket" costs $36.
2. The absentee bidder places the bid by completing in full the Absentee Bid Sheet found on the last page of this catalogue. In order to complete the form in full, a bidder must provide the name(s) and number(s) of the auction item(s) for which s/he is bidding, his/her name, the amount of the bid(s), his/her address and telephone number. The bidder must also sign the form and attach payment or credit card information for the item.
3. All absentee bids must be equal to or greater than the published minimum bid. Any absentee bid that is less than the minimum bid will be disqualified.
4. All absentee bids must be submitted in writing, either by hard copy or electronically by 11:59 p.m. on Saturday, March 13, 2010. To submit the form electronically, please email to purimball@jpds.org. To submit it by hard copy, please deliver to the main office at JPDS with a notation that says "Purim Ball" by 2:15pm on March 13, 2010. Partially completed forms will not be accepted.
5. All absentee bids will be kept confidential until 6 p.m. on March 14, 2010. At that time, the Ball Chairs or their designee will open them and the highest bid for each item will be entered on the item's bid sheet.

Important Tax Information

1. The bidder's charitable deduction for the purchase of an auction item is limited to the amount, if any, in excess of the fair market value of the item as published in the Purim Ball Auction Catalogue.

2. Your receipt from the auction will include a good faith estimate of the fair market value of the items you purchased and the actual amounts you paid for those items.
3. Winning bids may require a receipt to substantiate any deduction you may be entitled to claim. Please retain the receipt from the auction with your tax records. This receipt is the only formal documentation you will receive.
4. In the absence of a value placed on an item by the donor, we have established a good faith estimate of the fair market value of that item. Because we are not professional appraisers, we are not responsible for the accuracy of such valuation

11 Architectural Design Service

16 hours of architectural design services with Landis Construction's in-house design team. Landis is an award-winning design/build firm specializing in additions, whole house renovations, porches, kitchens, bathrooms, and garages. Landis has a strong focus on green design in areas of air quality, energy efficiency, and sustainability.

Ideally your 16 hours would be used toward a large renovation project. (Note that costs are calculated using Landis' hourly rate but are typically in the range of 10% of the construction cost.) For such a project, these hours would be sufficient for a meeting to discuss your ideas and renovation goals, preliminary zoning research, and the measure and completion of existing drawings for a small or moderately sized space.

For a smaller project such as a bathroom renovation, this time would be sufficient for as-built drawings and a revised floor plan. And for a straightforward project such as a deck, the time should be enough to complete construction drawings. Expires 12/31/10.

Donor: Landis Construction Company

Donor Value: $2,000.00

903 Costa Rican Getaway

This beachside Costa Rican villa is paradise on earth! Wake up in your room overlooking the ocean, then go outside onto your private balcony and see and hear the ocean while listening to the howler monkeys. Walk outside for a few seconds and you're on the beach, or dip into one of the three pools next to the small, friendly restaurant. Sip a milky Costa Rican coffee or take a dip in the infinity pool, while gazing at the hummingbirds, hibiscus bushes, and monkeys frolicking in tree-covered hills. Get some poolside cocktails in the afternoon while your kids wind down in the pool just a few feet away. And if so much relaxation gets old, there's no shortage of things to do. At a nearby resort, swim out to a boat for an afternoon of snorkeling. Surfing lessons for kids and adults are an hour away at the widest, whitest beach you've ever seen (and the water's as warm as your bathtub). Also on tap: rafting, volcanoes, hot springs, mud baths, an overnight trip to the cloud forest, swinging bridges, Costa Rica's famous zip lines, and a river safari.

All of this is close to the well-equipped, spacious three-bedroom beachside villa in a secluded cove on the northern Pacific coast of Costa Rica. It's part of the Bahia Pez Vela Resort, with three pools, a restaurant, two sea kayaks and other amenities, including English-speaking staff who can arrange for day trips and help with any issues that might arise. The villa is a short drive from the Liberia Airport, and can sleep 10 with two on a couch/air mattress.

Limitations and Restrictions: The villa is not kosher, although excellent vegetarian food is widely available at area restaurants and an upscale supermarket. Rental car is a necessity and not included. Week runs Saturday to Saturday, although exceptions can be made depending on the dates requested. Dates to be mutually agreed on but definitely exclude the weeks of: 3/19/10; 3/26/10; 5/15/10; 12/18/10; 12/25/10; 1/1/11; 4/16/11; 4/23/11. 907 Autumn Hunt Country Getaway in Virginia

Spend two gorgeous weekend nights at a beautiful, newly-restored antebellum farmhouse close to Middleburg, Virginia. Located on a 143-acre site with views of Bull Run and the Blue Ridge Mountains, the property features three bedrooms, two baths, and even a staffed working farm. Wander through the gardens; dine on fresh, garden-picked tomatoes with basil; watch grazing sheep, llamas and cows; and let your kids ride the pony. Just one hour from DC, Hunt Country offers hiking, biking, hunting, riding lessons, great restaurants, and antiques.

910 One Week in a Log Cabin near Deep Creek Lake

Take a week and enjoy all that Western Maryland has to offer! Located on 4.5 wooded acres surrounded by hiking trails, the four-bedroom cabin has a fully-equipped kitchen, plus a basement family room with a pull-out couch and foosball table. The large deck with a grill overlooks the woods and fire-pit. No Internet or cable, but who needs those on vacation? Instead you'll find many DVDs and quiet space for reading.

Walk just 10 minutes to Deep Creek Lake, where there's private access for boating. Or drive 20 minutes to any of five state parks offering swimming, boating, hiking, and sailing. The restaurants and entertainment of McHenry, MD are also a short drive away. Available any time in March - July, some weeks in August may be available.

912 Afternoon Sail on the Potomac

There is no better way to relax than an afternoon on the water! Sail the Potomac River this spring with the Epstein-Schatten family. You and your guests will board a Nomad sailboat for an afternoon sail and, if you like, a private sailing lesson. The boat will sail out of Washington Sailing Marina (just south of Reagan National Airport), and can take up to four adults/kids at a time.

Afternoon will be tailored to kids' ages or to adults' taste:

- Short sail and picnic – For families with young children, a short sail followed by a dairy picnic lunch at the marina.
- Cruise the Potomac – For older kids, sail down to Old Town Alexandria or across the river to Potomac park, with picnic lunch at anchor.

Child and adult lifejackets, which must be worn at all times, will be provided. Please, no children under five. The Vanguard Nomad is a wide and stable 17-foot daysailor designed for families. It has an outboard motor for getting back to the marina if the wind dies. To be arranged on a mutually convenient date.
