

Hannah Weissler (JPDS-NC Class of 2009) was awarded the 2010-2011 Field School's Allie Hardwick Award, the middle school's highest honor. The award is given yearly to the Middle School student who has had a profound impact on middle school life and on the cohesiveness of the Middle School community. It is given to the Middle School student who best exemplifies the academic, artistic, athletic and community standards of The Field School.

Eli Weissler (JPDS-NC Class of 2009) was awarded the Skills of Mind Award, the highest academic award at The Field School. Eli also received two MVP awards, for junior varsity basketball and baseball.